In view of the recommendation of the Select committee that considered the Bill for amending the Pleaders' Regulation for extending the period of concession to three years more so as to enable the candidates to enroll themselves as 1st and 2nd grade pleaders under the present system, will Government be pleased to provide for the pleadership examination being held once in 6 months instead of once a year, so as to give greater facilities to the anxious students who may happen to fail by accident in some of the branches of the Test by completing it and who wish to avail themselves of the concession?

OPINIONS OF JUDGES.

Mr. Justice K.S.Chandrasekhara Aiyar -

I do not think would-be second grade pleaders require any further concession beyond the extensions of time already granted. As regards the general question of holding the examinations twice instead of once a year, this depends upon a real need for multiplying the number of examinations being shown to exist: the reply of the Local Service and Pleaders' Examination Board speaks of the "great use" that candidates will derive therefrom, but this is not quite the same as the existence of a necessity therefor. As regards cost, it should not be forgotten that increasing the number of examinations involves a corresponding decrease in the number of candidates appearing at each session, and therefore a decrease in the amount available to meet the cost of holding each set of examinations. If Government should feel satisfied upon both points after enquiry, there would seem to be no objection

Mr. Justice R. B. Plumer -

I agree with the Chief Judge that holding the examinations twice a year hardly seems necessary. I do not however see any objection to it being done.

Subject:-

Question of holding the Local Service and Pleaders' Examinations twice a year.

The question of holding the Local Service and Pleaders' Examinations twice a year was repeatedly pressed for consideration both in the Representative Assembly and the Legislative Council with a view to give increased facilities to candidates intending to qualify themselves for enrolment as Second Grade Pleaders within the extended term of 3 years allowed under Government Order No.G.5860-1 dated 5th September 1919. Thereupon the question was referred to the Board of management for the Mysore Local Service and Pleaders' Examinations. The Board expressed their opinion in favour of holding both the Pleadership and the Local Service Examinations twice a year so that it might be useful not only to the Pleadership candidates but also to Probationary Assistant Commissioners and other officers who are required to pass these tests within a definite period.

2. I agreed to the proposal and a draft order sanctioning it was accordingly prepared.

3. On the suggestion of the First Member of Council the Chief Court were consulted in the matter and the Judges expressed the opinion that while a Second Examination was hardly necessary, there was no particular objection to the proposal if Government were satisfied as to its necessity.

Pages 9 to 11 of Office Notes

4. The Second Member of Council agreed with the Chief Court and the First Member observed that he was not in favour of the proposal and that no strong case was made out for the extra concession to the Pleadership Candidates. When the papers came up to me for the second time, I recorded my opinion as follows:-

" I do not think that much weight can be attached to the opinion of the Chief Court. It is more or less an administrative question as to whether additional facilities should or should not be afforded to candidates who wanted to qualify themselves as Pleaders. It will also afford facilities to men in the Government Service and particularly to failed candidates. In Bombay the LL.B. Examination is held twice a year and this is regarded as a great 'boon' by the candidates appearing for the examination. As regards the financial aspect of the question I do not at all think that the number of candidates will in any way decrease and that the Examination will be a burden upon the State".

5. The question was then considered at a meeting of the Council held on 1st July 1920 and it was resolved that the scheme might be tried for a year.
